

US Masters, Augusta National Golf Club
Thursday 8th – Sunday 11th April 2010

The Masters Tournament is revered in golfing circles as the very pinnacle of golf. Augusta National has formed a cornerstone of golf since its inception in 1932, and the Masters Tournament for which it was created had captivated golfers ever since. With a host of golfing greats already associated with its rich history including it's easy to see why this exclusive club in Georgia has quickly become golf's golden ticket.

Your Golf Travel.com is pleased to offer you the opportunity to get within feet of the action with a range of packages designed to suit a variety of budgets and requirements. For those wanting the best value accommodation we recommend our Columbia Self Drive packages alternatively for those wanting to simply sit back and relax during their Masters trip we offer fully inclusive packages including airport transfers as well as VIP luxury hospitality upgrades during the tournament itself. Whichever package you decide upon one thing we can guarantee is that you will leave with the memories that will be etched on your golfing soul.

Columbia Self Drive Packages

Located approximately an hour North from Augusta, Columbia provides a comfortable base for golfers looking to enjoy the US Masters without paying the premium accommodation rates that the week of the Masters brings. Guests staying in Columbia can also enjoy some superb golf courses including Crickentree and Woodlands Country Club. The majority of nightlife in Columbia is found in the downtown area where you can enjoy fantastic local cuisine and Carolina specialities.
